We dislike to answer such questions just now; but we suppose there can hardly be any harm in saying-what every lawyer knows-that under the law of Virginia, on an indictment for murder, the jury are required to find whether the prisoner be guilty of murder in the first or second degree; and that on an indictment for felonious homicide the jury may find the accused not guilty of the felony but guilty of involuntary manslaughter.

execution of a decreu of the Chancery Court of Richmond entered May 4, 1876, in the case of Haxall, &c. vs. Crenshaw's administratrix, &c., the undersigned, the special commissioner thereby appointed for the purpose, will sell by auction on WEDNESDAY the 26th day of March, 1879, at 12 o'clock M., upon the premises, THREE LOTS OF GROUND in the city of Hichmond on the east side of Ninth street below Byrd street, and adjoining on the south the tobacco factory owned by L. W. Glazebrook's estate, each of said lots fronting 30 feet on Ninth street, and running back 130 feet. If desired by bidders this property will be sold as a whole, and as it offers unusual advantages for a site for a tobacco factory, being centrally located, and near enough to the river to get its influence as well as that of a south sun upon the weed, it is hoped that tobacco men will attend the sale.

TERMS: One-fourth cash; balance at one, two,
